

WHO WE ARE

In 1960, Mary Roddenberry who was a long-time resident of Lea County recognized a need for meaningful activities for adults with developmental disabilities. She started the Lea Work Activity Center (LEAWAC). The organization evolved with several different names and in 1990 the organization became what was known as Lea Developmental Education Rehabilitation Services. For the past 49 years, Leaders has continued growing and evolve along with the changing needs and issues faced by people with developmental disabilities.
